Search The Web & Support A Good Cause!

There is a Search Engine out there that not only helps you find what you need, but also donates money to charity for every search you do. They also are affiliated with a lot of online stores that donate a percentage of your purchase to charity. The websites we are talking about are GoodSearch.com and GoodShop.com. A charity that is close to our hearts is The International Waldenstroms Macroglobulinemia Foundation (IWMF). Waldenstroms Macroglobulinemia is presently an incurable blood cancer. Please help us support this organization by going to GoodSearch.com and setting up under IWMF. If you have any questions, please contact Ken Wierda at (800) 632-2010 or at ken@wmfleetparts.com. Thanks for your support.
