Hello,

My name is Ken Wierda. My wife Marcia was diagnosed with Waldenstroms Macroglobulinemia in December of 2003. WM is presently an incurable blood cancer. After numerous hospital stays Marcia received chemo treatments in late 2004. The treatments were successful and her disease is still in remission at this time. We recently celebrated our 42nd wedding anniversary and feel very blessed.

Fortunately, Waldenstroms is a very rare cancer. Only about 1,200 people in the United States are diagnosed each year. Unfortunately, this means that funds for research, clinical trials, and treatments are very difficult to obtain.

The International Waldenstroms Macroglobulinemia Foundation (IWWMF) (www.iwwmf.com) has been a great support program for Marcia and myself.

IWWMF needs every dollar it can get. You can help at no cost to you by using www.goodsearch.com and www.goodshop.com. IWWMF will receive funds when you use these programs.

Here is some info from the GoodSearch website:

As you know, I'm a supporter of IWWMF - International Waldenstroms Macroglobulinemia Foundation and I want to share with you a simple way for you to help support this organization or any other cause that you care about.

Just go to <http://www.goodsearch.com>. Under "Who do you GOODSEARCH for" enter in "IWWMF" and select "- International Waldenstroms Macroglobulinemia Foundation"

Each time you search the web with GoodSearch's Yahoo-powered search engine, about a penny will go your charity or school.

Also, every time you shop online at 2,000 participating stores including Target, Apple, Staples, Expedia, etc., a percentage of your purchase will be donated for free! The site also has thousands of money-saving coupons!

To give you a sense of how the money can add up, the ASPCA has already earned more than $30,000!

Please tell 10 friends about the GoodSearch toolbar today. They've been featured in the NY Times, the Wall Street Journal, CNN, Oprah Magazine, Good Morning America and more.

Please forward this info to 10 of your friends, and ask them to send it to 10 more people. This chain can be a great benefit to WM patients.

Please call or email me if you have any questions or comments.

Thanks From Marcia and Ken Wierda, our sons Tim and Andy Wierda and their families
